Regardless of the low pre-sale estimate for the lot, Sotheby's Australia reserves the right to request from prospective bidders that they complete the pre-registration application form and deliver to Sotheby's Australia a deposit of AUD$10,000 or such other higher amount as may be determined by Sotheby's Australia and any financial references, guarantees and/or such other security as Sotheby's Australia may require in its absolute discretion, as security for the bid. We recommend you complete and return this form or contact Sotheby's Australia at least 3 working days prior to the relevant sale in order to process the pre-registration. Please bear in mind that we are unable to obtain financial references over weekends or public holidays.

Important

- The sale will be conducted in accordance with the Second East Auction Holdings Pty Ltd trading as Sotheby's Australia ("Sotheby's Australia") Conditions of Business and bidding and buying at the sale will be regulated by these Conditions. You should read these Conditions of Business which set out the charges payable by you on the purchases you make and other terms relating to bidding and buying at the sale. You should ask any questions you have about the Conditions before signing this form. These Conditions also contain certain undertakings by bidders and buyers and limit Sotheby's Australia's liability to the bidders and buyers.
- New bidders must also provide proof of identity when submitting bids. Failure to do this may result in your bids not being processed.
- Bids will be rounded down to the nearest increment.
- Telephone and absentee bid forms must be received at least 24 hours before the commencement of the auction session and Sotheby's Australia bears no responsibility for any errors that occur. It is the bidder's responsibility to check that there are no late saleroom notices which affect the sale of the specified lots, which bidders in the room have been informed of, at the commencement of the auction, by the auctioneer.
